Section Director.

by the weapon was found an empty half-pint bottle of corn whiskey.

Marks on the dead man's body advanced the theory that probably Rowe had been murdered on one of the floors above and thrown into the elevator shaft. There was a hole in the back of his neck, which was probably made either by a bullet or the end of the bludgeon.

The dead man's head was cut very deep on one side, and the left side of his face and his left shoulder horribly bruised. His neck was evidently broken.

From some papers on his person his identity was established. Several letters were also found in his pockets.

The detectives do not believe that he was robbed, as they found a $5 bill in his inside coat pocket, which was placed in a folding leather pocket-book. A half-dollar, a nickel and a one-cent piece were found in his side coat pocket. A plain gold watch was in his pocket.

The body was discovered about 10 o'clock by Sam Phillips, the negro janitor and freight elevator boy. Phillips had lowered the elevator to the basement and had stepped out of it to make some adjustment of the cables. He saw the elevator up a few feet in the air and stepped underneath it to arrange the cables. As he stepped down into the basement, the elevator fell and he was hurled to the floor. He was killed by the fall.

Detectives Summoned

Detectives Moon, Patrick, Black and Roser came to the scene and removed the dead man's body to A. O. Donohoe's undertaking establishment. The undertaker declared that the body had probably been in the pit from two and a half to three days.

The theory that the man had wandered into the elevator shaft in a drunken state and fallen to sleep was dropped when the negro elevator boy declared that the entrance to the basement from underneath the Peachtree viaduct was always fastened by a lock, and that no one could enter the basement from the ground floor.

This left only two theories for the detectives to work upon. That the man had fallen either from the second or third floors of the building into the elevator shaft, or was murdered and thrown into the shaft.

The janitor states that carpenters were repairing the strategically on the second and third floors, and that the bludgeon would possibly have fallen through the shaft then, and been smashed with the blood on the man's head.

An investigation of the building showed that the elevator was in the outside. Some of the detectives questioned the door to the elevator shaft and found it locked.

Love Heart Revealed.

By the discovery of personal letters addressed to Rowe and a personal of the man's death, the love triangle was disclosed by the tragedy. Two of the love letters are signed "Minnie Knight" and were written in March from Lanett, Ala.

A third was written from Gainesville, Ga., dated October 11, 1913, and is signed by "Minnie Knight." Each letter disclosed a story of undying devotion and love for Rowe.

A third was written from Gainesville, Ga., dated October 11, 1913, and is signed by "Minnie Knight." Each letter disclosed a story of undying devotion and love for Rowe.

The man who was the subject of the letters was a young man named J. M. Rowe, who was a member of the Lawrenceville, Ga., team. He was a student at the University of Georgia, and was a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Love Letter from Wife.

One letter reads in part: "I can't write for crying. To think that I have a sweet man in the world who can't be with him. I love him with all my heart, and you can find any way for us to live together. I will be so happy and will live for you alone. I don't want any other man but you. If I don't love you, I would never have married you. You are all the world to me. Can you prove that you have a divorce? If you can, I will be with you. You know it is against the law to have two living wives without a divorce. If you can find any way to get free from the law, I will live with you, for you're the only man that I ever loved."

This letter was dated March, 1914, and was signed "Your Love, Minnie Knight." The second letter, which was dated October 11, 1913, and was signed "Minnie Knight," and written from Lanett, Ala., to J. M. Rowe, was dated in part, as follows: "I have told you to go on, and if you'll send me the money I will see you soon. Oh, if I could only see you coming back to me before I meet you. I had loved, but alas, none until I saw you. You have captured my heart and that was my darling. 'I will live with you, for you're the only man that I ever loved.' Below the letter was a heart drawn with a pen. 'I once had a heart—a heart that was yours. It has flown from me and gone to you. It is with you, and I have it now. For you have taken it and I have none.'"

Tests of Divorce.

Another letter referring to the divorce of his wife, and written upon paper with the name of J. M. Rowe, was found in the pocket of the man who was killed. The letter was dated in part, as follows: "When I got a divorce from J. M. Rowe some twelve years ago, we agreed that if he would not appear and fight the proceedings his disabilities would be removed also, and he would be at liberty to marry again."

This paper was unsigned, but dated March 24, 1913. It stated that the divorce was granted by the court of Russell (Dick Russell), of the court of appeals.

A lawyer, whose name is unknown, said to Donohoe's Thursday afternoon and stated that he had just appeared at the court and had been told that Rowe wanted him to take up the matter of getting his disabilities removed. He stated that Rowe had a sister in Lawrenceville, named Mrs. Thomas M. O'Leary. She was communicated with and stated that Rowe left there Tuesday morning for Birmingham, Ala.

Worked as Convict Guard.

A dispatch from Lawrenceville said J. M. Rowe was until recently a convict guard in Tennessee county. This was borne out by the discovery in one of Rowe's pockets of a monthly report of the misdemeanors of the county, which was signed by C. L. Nash, a man in his pocket. The report was written in the name of Mrs. B. H. Bailey, Lanett, Ala., as inmate of the county. The report was found a health certificate signed by Dr. J. P. C. Van Horn and dated at Monroe, Ga., April 10, 1914. It stated that Rowe had lived in Monroe for twenty years, and that he was of delicate health, and subject to nervous prostrations, and unable to do any hard physical labor.

It is probable that Coroner Donohoe will hold his inquest over the body of the dead man this morning.

The body is at the chapel of A. O. & Roy Donohoe and will be carried to his home at Monroe, Ga., for funeral and interment. Mr. Rowe was 44 years old. Surviving him are his wife and the following children: Har. W. Rowe, of Rome; J. L. Tom, Willie, Travis and C. C. Rowe, of Monroe; Misses Florence and Georgia Rowe; Mrs. Lillie Ellison and Mrs. W. C. Foster, of Monroe.

WILSON IS INTERESTED IN CHILDREN'S BUREAU

Washington, April 9.—Miss Julia Lathrop, head of the federal children's bureau, gave President Wilson today a preliminary statement of the study being made by the bureau on the subject of health for the feeble-minded. She said later the president personally was interested in the present system and the bureau was making a study of the information about the work. Miss Lathrop explained that the bureau of education and the children's bureau would soon draw up a joint plan for the reduction of the appropriation for the children's bureau to $18,000, which had been asked, to $20,000 and the president expressed his regret that such action had been taken.

DIVORCE SYSTEM SCORED BY ELLIS

Judge Tells the Jury He Has Felt "Humiliated" at Having to Preside Over So Many Cases.

Judge W. D. Ellis, of the superior court, who has been hearing undivided divorce suits, yesterday scored the divorce system in an address to the jury, following the hearing of the last case on the list.

"Witness, step down," said Judge Ellis. Then he turned to the jury and let loose. He characterized the proceedings of the previous four days as disgusting. He spoke of the jury as "humiliated" at having to hear so many divorce cases in four days as "humiliating." Last of all, he scored the 146 men and women who had been given decrees.

"Did you notice these women?" he demanded. "Did you notice that nearly all of them were startling and gaudy clothes, and addressed the jury in such bland and honeyed tones that you could hardly hear them? If they had taken the trouble to talk that way at home we probably wouldn't have had any divorce proceedings."

"During the trial of all these cases," he went on, "not the wall of an infant was heard in this court. If a man is on trial for murder or some other crime, his wife and children will fairly overflow the courtroom, but you don't see them hanging around when one of these undivided divorce suits is going through.

"One woman, you will remember, made a sworn statement of most inhuman cruelty supposed to have been suffered at the hands of her husband—a sworn statement from this stand. Yet the husband, the next day, in the public print, branded every one of these statements as untrue. But he didn't try to stop the divorce. How many other husbands could also deny such statements if they wanted to do so?"

Judge Ellis stated that he had introduced a bill embodying his ideas for divorce reform in the legislature, but that after a favorable hearing it had been killed in the judiciary committee.

"You gentlemen," the court concluded, "have seen what occurs under the present laws. How much they need to be amended, you can deduce for yourselves."

TEN BLAZES LAD TO J. YARBROUGH

Man Accused of Giving Girl Poisoned Banana Said to Have Had Many Fires During Last Few Years.

Macon, Ga., April 9.—(Special.)—With a view to determining whether or not there are grounds for taking out a warrant charging John W. Yarbrough, the man who is alleged to have given Miss Irene Herndon a poisoned banana last Saturday, with arsenic in connection with the burning of a couple of weeks ago of the house in which he was living, State Fire Marshal W. R. Joyner, of Atlanta, will hold an inquiry here tomorrow morning and will go fully into the matter. More than forty arrests will figure in the case, it is alleged that Yarbrough was connected with.

Captain Joyner stated today that he was undecided what his course would be if the evidence at the hearing tomorrow indicated that Yarbrough was responsible for the fire. He said if the testimony warranted it he would either swear out a warrant himself or refer the matter over to Solicitor Rose with the request that it be brought before the grand jury, which is expected here next Monday.

Yarbrough today continued to protect his innocence of the charge of giving Miss Herndon the banana containing a large quantity of bichloride of mercury. He has employed Attorney W. D. McNeill, state senator from the twenty-second district, to represent him and the latter said today that Yarbrough has not only been done a great injustice, but is the victim of an awful plot. Attorney McNeill declared that if Yarbrough is vindicated, heavy damage suits will be brought against the ones who made the charges against him, for false arrest and defamation of character.

The charges in brief against Yarbrough are that he gave Miss Herndon a poisoned banana in order to put her out of the way so that she could not testify against him if a charge of arson was brought against him. Miss Herndon claims to have discovered that when Yarbrough's house was burned he saved four trunks filled with household goods which were secreted in a barn at the rear of the house. Yarbrough had sought to collect insurance to the amount of $1,200 and Miss Herndon learned of this when she had told several people of her alleged discovery of the trunks.

The insurance company which held the policy for $1,200 on Yarbrough's property, claims that it has information in its possession that Yarbrough has had ten fires in Georgia during the last few years.

Cases were lodged against Cleland and Tuten, but Williams was released.

INTEREST CENTERED IN REPORT OF BURNS

Will Probably Be Early Next Week Before It Is Submitted by the Detective.

Interest in the Leo Frank case is now centered on the forthcoming report of Detective William J. Burns. He stated Thursday that no definite date had been set, but it is the general belief that it will not be submitted until the early part of next week.

Solicitor Hugh M. Dorsey left the city last night and will not return until the day previous to the date set for Leo Frank's execution—April 17. The investigation being promoted into the case by the prosecution is being managed almost entirely by the detective department, fully six men of which are actively at work.

Women Want Full Suffrage.

Chicago, April 9.—Declaring that women demanded the right to vote at Tuesday's township elections, the twenty-second district, to represent him and the latter said today that Yarbrough has not only been done a great injustice, but is the victim of an awful plot. Attorney McNeill declared that if Yarbrough is vindicated, heavy damage suits will be brought against the ones who made the charges against him, for false arrest and defamation of character.

Roses and Posies and Fruits and Foliage!

The Daintiest and Prettiest Hats of the Season Arrived from Estelle Mershon Yesterday

A number of them have the magic names of wonderful Paris milliners; the others are the creations and the adaptations of Estelle Mershon, of 20 E. 46 St., New York.

They are in every respect the daintiest and prettiest collection of hats we have offered this season. And here it is but two days until Easter.

What are the hats?

They are a reflection, or rather an embodiment of the lately successful styles of Paris and New York.

Tiny turbans, bewitching Watteau hats, smart sailors, piquant poke bonnets. Hats that seem to be nothing but a flat brim and a bandeau and a bit of fruit or floral trimming; others that flare up oddly in the back and have a band that fits under the back coiffure.

Nothing new is missing, the fruit and the flowers, the lacquered ribbons, the high colors are put to their smartest uses. The result is hats that will queen it over all at such times as Easter and the opera.

Early in the season we advised that this would be a season of the dainty hat. It is coming to pass. These, the latest and best efforts (or copies) of the world's celebrated artists in millinery, are proving it.

We invite you to this, the most satisfying display of spring millinery thus far this season.

THE SUIT YOU BUY TODAY

Nine-tenths of the suits bought this week will be worn Sunday morning and go immediately into desk service Monday morning. That isn't a bad thought to carry with you when you're selecting the suit.

The matter of dress touches your business life very closely. You must have clothes that will live up to your business standing and which will stand the test your proprietorship demands in service.

Suit buying is a business transaction in which service, not mere possession, must be commensurate with the purchase price.

Money invested in a good thing is money saved—that's the basis of our success in the clothing business. It's no trick to sell good clothes.

It takes no persuasion to get a man back into the store where he has purchased well and found everything to his taste—service and price included.

That's the way it's done at Muse's. Every good citizen will tell you so—an astonishing number of them have had thirty years' experience—that's a fair test.

Make your own test today—

We guarantee tomorrow's gladness.

Spring Styles are ready for your service—Hats of Fashion, Furnishings correct and Shoes that finish the well dressed man.

BROOKS FARMERS SHOCK ORDINANCE

Charge Atlanta Law, Requiring Meat to Be Shipped Alive, Discriminates Against Ga. Stock Raiser.

Quilman, Ga., April 9.—(Special.)—At a meeting held in Quilman today the matter of the discrimination against the small Georgia meat raiser through an ordinance requiring all meat, except in carload lots, to be shipped alive and killed in Atlanta slaughter houses was most earnestly protested against and its repeal urged.

The secretary of Brooks County Industrial club was instructed to send to Mayor Woodward, the following telegram:

"We notice agitation in Atlanta in regard to the Atlanta ordinance discriminating against the small Georgia meat raiser and as a broad-minded Georgia citizen, who we believe is interested more in the small Georgia producer than in the big packing interests of the west, we earnestly ask you to do everything in your power to eliminate the ordinance upon small Georgia producer, who should be encouraged rather than legislated against."

Indorsed by Citizens.

This telegram has been received and approved by the executive committee of this organization and is indorsed by the leading citizens of Brooks county. Your past record leads us to believe that you will do everything in your power to have repealed the ordinance referred to above. We are quite sure the substantial business community of Atlanta do not wish the impression created in south Georgia, anywhere else, that they are desirous of helping in force an ordinance discriminating unjustly against the middle class of citizenship of the state.

The impression prevails in Brooks county that the ordinance was passed at the instance of big western shippers, who, of course, ship in carload lots and was intended to cut out competition with western meat raisers. At the instance of the Georgia Industrial club was also instructed to write the president of the Georgia Industrial Commerce that Brooks county would join with other counties in the state in sending a committee to Atlanta to make earnest protest against the ordinance and to seek its repeal.

Telegram to Kennedy.

The following telegram was also sent to J. P. Kennedy, the health officer of present law.

"A broad-minded Georgian who appeals to you to remedy the condition existing in Atlanta which discriminates against the small Georgia meat raiser. We are sure you do not want to be placed in the attitude before the people of Georgia as favoring discrimination against the small Georgia producer in favor of the big western packing houses. The small Georgia meat raiser is vitally concerned in this situation because his farmers shipped last year more hog meat than all the counties of the state combined."

SOUTHERN SPIRIT URGED FOR SOUTHERN SCHOOLS

Louisville, Ky., April 9.—A proposition for fostering the southern spirit in the convention of the League of Southern Writers, Mrs. Anne P. Bannister, of Nashville, Tenn., and other women writers advocated that textbooks in the various southern schools should contain the best thoughts in the literature of the state and history which present historical events as affecting the south from an absolutely impartial viewpoint.

The peace movement and the effect of the Panama canal upon southern commerce were other subjects discussed today by Mrs. T. Latham, Memphis, Miss Louise Lindner, Nashville, and Miss Maria Thompson Davis, Nashville.

FOR DOWAGER EMPRESS JAPAN IS MOURNING

Tokyo, Japan, April 9.—The Dowager Empress Haruko died at the imperial villa at Nakano today.

Following the usual custom in the case of the death of a member of the imperial family, the official announcement of the event will not be made until the body has been transferred to the mausoleum. This is expected to take place tomorrow.

Her majesty passed away suddenly in the presence of Emperor Yoshihito, the emperor and the other members of the royal family, who had been summoned from the capital.

Her majesty had been suffering for a considerable period from angina pectoris, but the official diagnosis declared that Bright's disease was the direct cause of her death.

The Dowager Empress Haruko was the widow of Emperor Meiji, who died on July 29, 1912. She was born on July 29, 1852, and was the daughter of a nobleman, Ichijo Tadado. In 1869 she married the late emperor and was declared empress.

BRINSON TRAIN HELD UP BY MOB OF ARMED MEN

Burke Sheriff Restores Order at St. Clair and Brings Out Train.

Savannah, Ga., April 9.—The strike of the Savannah and Northwestern railroad, formerly the Brinson railway, became serious this morning when the regular passenger train scheduled to leave St. Clair is alleged to have been held up by a mob. General Manager H. B. Morgan said he believed the obstructionists to be employees of the Georgia and Florida railway, who are in sympathy with the striking conductors.

The passenger train from Savannah left at 7:10 o'clock in charge of C. E. Clark, the local agent. The freight train into Savannah arrived on time in charge of M. M. Brennan, the road agent.

The Brinson railway officials succeeded, it is understood, in getting a bullet into the stomach, near the junction, but about the time he was leaving, the train of the Georgia and Florida railway came up and the crew induced the substitute conductor to abandon his post and not start the train out.

The telephone message from St. Clair says there is no trouble expected. Mr. Morgan insists that his crew was intimidated by armed men with guns and revolvers.

At 10 o'clock this afternoon General Manager Morgan stated that the sheriff of Burke county had reached St. Clair.

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN, APRIL 9.—King Gustave of Sweden was operated on today at the Sophia hospital here. The surgeons found him suffering from extensive ulceration of the stomach.

The operation, in charge of Professor John Wilhelm Berg, a well-known Swedish surgeon, occupied two hours. Later it was announced the royal patient's condition was satisfactory, although his majesty was weak and will stay there until the king is convalescent.

After the operation on the king a bulletin was issued which said the actual operation lasted 15 minutes and was well borne by the royal patient. It contained:

"A more or less superficial ulcer was discovered on the left lower side of the stomach, near the pylorus, or opening between the stomach and small intestine. The ulcer showed no signs of being malignant."

Professor Wilhelm Fleiner, who acted as anesthesiologist, declared the result no doubt that the operation was necessary."

AUTO OWNERS REJOICE; GASOLINE TAKES DROP

Many automobile owners were given reason to rejoice when they learned that there was about to be another gasoline war on among the oil dealers of Atlanta.

The price for several months has been about 17 cents per gallon, until the first sudden drop this week when it went to 15 cents. Then another drop came Tuesday when the price took another half-cent drop and remained at that price until late Thursday, when one of the larger dealers announced the price at 13 1/4 cents per gallon.

This is the lowest retail price for gasoline quoted in many days, and it looks like the gasoline war is on in earnest. The sudden drop in prices, however, probably is due to that oil production in this country and to the heavy import shipments from the South American fields.

Williams-Everett.

The wedding of Miss Agnes Williams and Mr. Thornton Everett was a pretty event taking place last night at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Williams, on Morris street, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends.

The decorations throughout the house were palms, ferns and smilax as a background for white roses and Easter lilies in the drawing room where the ceremony took place, and pink roses in the dining room, white flowers being used in the other rooms. The bride's party came through an aisle of white ribbons extending from the doorway to an altar of palms, ferns and Easter lilies in the drawing room before which they were grouped. Miss Albert Williams was her sister.

ter's maid of honor and Mr. Clarence Brown, Jr., was best man. The bride was given away by her father, and Dr. Charles Paul, of the First Baptist church, was the officiating minister. Mr. Paul Donohoe played the wedding march and before the ceremony Mrs. Walford Edwards sang several beautiful selections. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white crepe de chine trimmed in princess lace. Her tulle veil was held in place with a chaplet of orange blossoms and her only ornament was a brooch of diamonds and pearls. The gift of the groom was a corsage bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. The maid of honor wore pink crepe and her bridesmaids wore pink and white. The bride's mother wore pearl gray crepe. After the ceremony an informal reception was held. In the center of the bride's table in the dining room was the wedding cake, made by an intimate friend of the bride, Mrs. E. H. Paget, Jr. It was in the shape of a large French basket, the handle tied with pink tulle and across the handle the names of the bride and groom and the date of the wedding. The basket was filled with pink roses and rested on a mirror wreathed with pink roses and smilax. Placing on the mirror were two glass vases and from the edges of the mirror radiated many pink ribbons to which were attached the thimble, ring and dime. The candle shades were pink and the menu and other details were also pink. Miss Ruth Lee, Mildred and Martha Cantrell, of Calhoun, presided at the punch bowl. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Reeves, of Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Jeanette Steele, of Calhoun; and Miss Lulu Cooper, of Anniston, Ala. After an automobile trip to north and west and Tennessee Mrs. and Mrs. Everett will go to home-keeping in Analay Park.

For Mr. and Mrs. Burnside.

Mrs. Virginia Pitt will entertain at a reception Wednesday afternoon, April 15, at her home on West Fifth street in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Burnside, of Paris, France.

Irvine-Smith.

The wedding of Miss Clifford Irvine and Mr. Milton Graham Smith took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris Irvine, in Green-wood cemetery. On the account of a recent bereavement in the groom's family the wedding was a quiet one, only relatives and intimate friends being present. Mr. Ermost Smith, of Atlanta, was his brother's best man, and there were no other attendants. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for the Bahamas islands and Cuba. The marriage is one of cordial interest not only in Green-wood cemetery, but in the city.

Albany, N. Y. April 5.—Women watchers at the polls if the proposed woman suffrage constitutional amendment is voted on in 1915 were assured today when Governor Glynn signed the bill granting the privilege to women. The measure provides that one watcher of universal suffrage per counted.

For Mrs. Carlton.

Miss Alma Downing will entertain at a luncheon Saturday afternoon at the Forth in compliment to Mrs. Ray Carlton, of Montgomery.

Mauney-Williams.

A marriage of interest to a large circle of friends was that of Miss Rachel Mauney and Mr. Robert W. Williams, of Meridian, Miss., which took place Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother on Peachtree street. The ceremony was witnessed by only intimate friends and relatives. The house was beautifully decorated with handsome palms, ferns and flowers.

The wedding party stood in the living room before an altar massed with palms and ferns and clusters of Easter lilies. The bride, who entered the room with her mother, Mrs. Josephine Mauney, was charming in her going-away gown of white crepe de chine, the short coat opening over a lace blouse and her hat of white straw was trimmed with a parasol bird. Her flowers were a corsage bouquet of orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Mauney Thompson was maid of honor and wore a gown of two-toned tulle in old blue and brown. Her leghorn hat was trimmed in blue velvet and she wore a corsage bouquet of Lady Hillington roses.

The bride's mother wore black crepe de chine with a corsage bouquet of Parma violets and lilies of the valley. Mr. Horace Stringfellow, of Birmingham, was best man, and Dr. C. E. Wilmer, of St. Luke's church, performed the ceremony.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride's table was decorated with pink roses and pink ribbons were banked with ferns on either side. Mrs. Trammell Scott and Mr. John Hinchey, of North Carolina, assisted in the wedding. Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams are of distinguished ancestry. The groom, who has resided in Atlanta for only a few years, is a daughter of late Senator Mauney, of South Carolina, and the groom is a descendant of Robert Walton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, for whom he is named. Among the out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mr. H. G. Gallagher, of Cleveland, Ohio; Messrs. Fidler Purlow and F. H. Clay, of Birmingham; and Samuel Hays Williams, of Meridian.

Musical Services.

Of special musical interest is the announcement of a musical service at St. Mark's church, corner Peachtree and Fifth streets, on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The service will be given by a chorus made up of sixteen prominent church members under the direction of Mr. J. W. Marchbank.

SING "STABAT MATER"

AT ST. LUKE'S TONIGHT

Rosetta's "Stabat Mater" will be sung this evening at 8 o'clock by the vested choir of St. Luke's church. This oratorio is rarely given because of its difficulty, the style of its composition being more operative than the conventional oratorio with its heavy and numerous choruses.

There are numerous solo, duets and quartets of surprising beauty, the unaccompanied quartet being of especial charm. This will be sung by Mrs. Louis Morkie, Mrs. Cecil Poole, soprano; Miss Harriet Milledge, Miss Grace Mauk, alto; Mr. James Wardwell, Mr. Will Crowder, tenors; Mr. Harry Bates, Mr. Charles Chalmers, baritone.

The chorus has been rehearsing for two weeks on the four choruses, the "Hallel" or "Amen Chorus" requiring great strength and power, and the sustaining power. An orchestra, consisting of four violins, one violin, will assist in the accompaniments.

Miss Ethel Butler will be organist and director, Mr. Cecil Poole, Mr. H. W. Wain, Mr. Charles Chalmers, Mr. Charles Chalmers, at the piano. The instrumental will start promptly at 8 o'clock, and the congregation is requested to be seated by that hour. Everyone invited.

Are you making her mistake?

And now she is paying the price. Today her pleasure is spoiled!

"Tell me," she brought her companion, "does walking never tire you? Yesterday you shopped all afternoon, yet returned as fresh-looking as when you left. And your shoes always look so stylish, too!"

RAILROAD SHARES DECLINE SHARPLY

Market Had Heavy Under-tone — Sentiment Bearish and Professional Traders Incline to Take Short Side.

New York, Apr. 27.—The principal movements in the stock market today were among the industrial stocks. The steel and railroad shares, a number of which had fallen sharply, were bought up as a whole, was uneven, with a heavy influx of investment funds, and the inclination of professional traders to take the short side. The market brought the list to a lower level, despite the fact that the steel industry's pressure converged on steel, in which a large proportion of the day's business was transacted. The market had thrown over in lots of 100,000 to 2,500 shares of the steel companies, and was particularly good short sale today on the basis of the fact that the steel companies' March tonnage figures tomorrow will be lower than the figures for the same month in years gone by, and more or less in unfiled orders. Reports of falling prices of steel, and the fact that reductions intensified bearing sentiment, shared the day's business. The steel shares, as well as United States Steel, were lower.

Foreign selling started the market downward. Europe sold Canadian Pacific, Steel and Kansas. The Texas Canadian Pacific sagged to 18 1/2, the lowest in several months. Kansas and Texas was unloaded by Dutch holders, who feared a reduction in the price of the preferred. For eight months running, the Texas Canadian Pacific has been at the rate of only 2 1/2 per cent.

Oil shares weakened in sympathy with the decline on the curb in stocks of the Standard Oil group. Both rumormongered issues made new low records, the preferred losing 4 points.

The trend of the bond market was lower, although some issues advanced. Rocky Island collaterals fell a point to another low level. Total sales $3,620,000. United States 2s, registered, de-
